OUR PUBLICATION

CARD MANUFACTURING

ICMA's official publication, Card Manufacturing magazine, is essential for global engagement in the card industry. It positions manufacturers, personalizers, issuing organizations, suppliers and service providers at the forefront of industry innovation and success. The magazine explores regional and global market trends, applying science, engineering and advanced methods to develop materials, equipment and services that drive card usage worldwide. Featuring technical articles, ISO Standards updates, industry news, new products and an industry calendar, each issue reaches industry professionals via email and online through the ICMA website, ensuring wide visibility and direct linkage to advertisers' websites.

OUR AUDIENCE

Card Manufacturing magazine reaches more than 2,000 CEOs, CFOs, COOs, CMOs and senior executives and HR departments in card manufacturing companies; engineers, developers and researchers interested in advancements in card production technology; plant supervisors, managers and personnel; creative professionals shaping the visual and functional aspects of card design and issuers leveraging cards for promotional and strategic purposes. Your company advertisement will link directly to your website. In addition to being posted on ICMA.com, the Special Pre-ICMA EXPO Issue will be printed and distributed at ICMA's Card Manufacturing & Personalization EXPO, which is attended by hundreds of card industry professionals from around the world.
